

Emerging Director Academy

Nomination into the Emerging Director Academy (EDA) is recognition of an individual's career achievements. Selection into this program indicates that he or she has met a variety of stringent criteria, including Director-related attributes such as:

- Business Development
- Practice Management
- Leadership
- Commitment to Growth
- Staff Development

This program is to ensure that Director candidates have a clear awareness of the skills, knowledge, and expertise required to achieve both personal and professional success as a Director. Moreover, it provides them with the professional development and job experience that will prepare them for the challenges and expectations that are part and parcel to being a high performing Director.

The goal of the program is for each candidate's participation in the academy to culminate in his or her promotion to Director.
